

New Overcoats

There's a lot of interest in our new Overcoats. We would like to have you come in and browse around among the latest arrivals. You will find that style has taken a decided step forward this year. Note the shapely new ideas—the wide lapels, the dressy collar, the slight shaping over the hips and the length, it's a bit shorter than last year's coat—but not too short. We have the new models in all the latest materials, mixtures and colorings at

DAILY THOUGHT.

I like to go out into the garden these warm later days and muse. To make it to sit in the sun and not think of anything. I am not sure but goodness comes out of people who bask in the sun as it does out of a sweet apple roasted before the fire.—Charles Dudley Warner.

Kimono Club.
Mrs. Don Morris was hostess to the Kimono club yesterday afternoon. Mrs. George Green of Oklahoma City, and Mrs. J. E. Woodworth were guests. Top score at auction was made by Mrs. Fred Y. Cronk and low by Mrs. D. M. Tibbets and the game was followed by a dainty two-course luncheon.

Symphonic Music.
The Origin of Symphonic Music was the subject of study at the Cecilia club Friday afternoon. Miss Hoyt led the program and discussed counterpoint, organum and chants and the examples were "Crucifixus" by Palestrina, "Summer is a-Coming In," "Madrigal," and "Gregorian Chant," by the ladies' quartette, Mrs. W. G. Rose, Mrs. Marley F. Smith, Miss Mary Dunham and Miss Vera Pittenger. Miss Dunham also sang "The Last Rose of Summer."

Hallowe'en Party at McCoy's.
Miss Margaret McCoy entertained with a Hallowe'en party last evening. Black cats, witches, jack-o-lanterns and all the symbols of the season were used in the scheme of decoration and fortunes were read in all the favorite ways, such as going down the cellar stairs with a mirror. Dancing also had a part in the evening's pleasures and delicious refreshments in two courses were served. The guests included Misses Frances Cope of Elk City, Mildred Davis, Flora Adler, Gladys Fasken, Cecile Allen, Banks Hughes, Mary Lee Owens; Messrs. Willis Askew, Carlin Donahue, Homer Hirtzel, Claude Patterson, Harold McBride, Stevenson, Grady Jones and Rhoe Oldham.

Delightful Dancing Affair.
Quite the most delightful dancing affair in many weeks was the first of a series of dinner dances held last night at the Hotel Ione and to follow on every other Friday night during

To Follow Her Example, When in Need of a Medicine, And They Have Profited by Her Advice

Asheville, N. C.—Mrs. W. H. Rhodes, of R. F. D. No. 4, of this place, writes: "For five years after my marriage, I didn't have very good health. Every three months I suffered for several days. I had terrible pains in my abdomen and back. I tried various remedies and medicines, which gave me no relief.

Seeing the testimonials in the Almanac I thought I would try Cardui. After taking the first one or two bottles, I began to feel better. I took it off and on for about four years. I improved all the time after I began to take Cardui.

Cardui and Black-Draught both are fine medicines and I always advise my sick neighbors to take them and they have been improved or cured by following my advice. I would also advise all suffering women to take Cardui, for it brought about a permanent cure for me, and I always have it in the house. I am well and strong and have had good health in that respect since using that medicine.

Many ladies, who once suffered terrible pains, now do so no more, or at least are relieved of many of their troubles as a result of taking Cardui, the woman's tonic.

the winter. A six-course dinner was served from seven-thirty until nine, when dancing began in the ball room upstairs. Adler's orchestra played for a program of eighteen dances and about fifty guests were present, among them: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hall of Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. William Schroeder and W. R. Craycroft of Oklahoma City.

Evening With Bridge.

A pleasant meeting of the Friends club was held last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Adams in East Cleveland avenue. Chrysanthemums, roses and other flowers were placed artistically about the rooms where there were four tables at bridge. The favors for top scores went to Mrs. W. H. Bonson and Dr. C. B. Barker. A delicious two-course luncheon was served by the hostess to five special guests, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Haws, Miss Ruth Woodward of Kingfisher, Miss Janet Woods and Mr. Frank Burford; and to these club members: Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Houseworth, Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bonson, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gardner and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Olson.

Clover Leaf Club.

The Clover Leaf club spent a pleasant afternoon at fancy work at the home of Mrs. D. Kieffer, south of town, Friday. The dainty luncheon which brought to a close the hours at sewing was served out in the yard and was enjoyed by the club members and two guests, Mrs. Hayden Parquharson and Mrs. J. E. Gaffney.

House Party.

Mrs. Charles Seely and Mrs. E. D. Walton will have a house party next week and their guests will be friends from Arkansas City and Wellington, Kansas. A number of gayeties are being planned in honor of the nine guests who are expected to arrive Wednesday.

Hallowe'en Social Tonight.

The Epworth League of the M. E. church, South, will give a delightful Hallowe'en social at the church tonight at 8 o'clock. Wrap up in a sheet and pillow case and come over.

Ghostly figures greeted the guests who climbed bravely through the window into the darkened rooms at 501 East Harrison where they had been summoned to behold the witches' walk. Miss Julia Williams was hostess and her cousin, Miss Dot Browne, was the honoree. The zany fortune teller, Mrs. Hazel Ridgeway, disclosed the future, and other fortunes were found concealed in every out of the way place, other Hallowe'en games were enjoyed and refreshments were served in a unique way, popcorn balls were found in fish ponds, apples were picked from trees growing in the dining room, cider and doughnuts were served from booths by Miss Paulina Browne. The guests were Misses Vera Allen, Vida Crook, Nina Bronson, Rosilee Evans, Dorothy Davis, Mary Humphrey, Ruth Hildreth, Lea Hughes, Ruth Rinehart, Genevieve Sexauer, George West, John Wallace, Arlene McElhenny, Mary Neal, Mary Douglass, Mildred Dale, Jessie Kellogg of Oklahoma City; Rodney Huffman, William Welch, James Taggart, Louis Statton, Verne Phelps, Otto Douglass, Raymond Davis, Raymond Byers, Kenneth Cockrell, Neir Behr, Paul Meyette, Eugene Beland, Elmer Thurston, James Watkins, Charles Alling, Floyd Ball and William Ritzhaupt.

Miss Retta Conaway has gone over to Cushing to be the guest of Mrs. J. E. Kenelly for the weekend and to attend her Hallowe'en party tonight.

Guests.

One of the enjoyable Hallowe'en festivities was the party given last evening by Mrs. William Bickel for the officers of the Guthrie Chapter, O. E. S. Yellow and black was the color note brought out in the pumpkins and other Hallowe'en decorations. The place cards were suggestive of the holiday and the favors were black cats. Light refreshments were served at the end of the evening.

Miss Mary Grace Dodd is visiting friends in Navina where she went to attend a Hallowe'en party tonight.

Mrs. W. H. Bonson and Mrs. Byrd Gillette witnessed the O. U. K. U. football game at Norman today.

O. O. O. Club Meet.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Brown were hosts to the O. O. O. club last evening and had as special guests, Mrs. Jesse Smart of Denver, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Heer. Top score was made by Mr. Will Patterson and low by Mrs. Heer. The tallies and decorations were symbols of Hallowe'en and a delicious two-course luncheon was served.

Master Heintz Braun had a Hallowe'en party last evening with nine of his special friends as guests. The boys came to supper at six o'clock and had a merry time with games until eight-thirty. They were James Petty, Charles and Russell Taylor, Billy Bronson, Thomas Spencer, Joe Dolph, Victor Holman, Henry Thompson and Henry Wolgamot.

Mrs. Jennie Trader was hostess to the Friday Bridge club yesterday afternoon, with only the members of the club as her guests. Mrs. E. S. Barde made top score and Mrs. Charles Filson was low. Next week Mrs. Trader will entertain the Friday Euchre club at her home at 411 North Division street.

A recital at the Hager studio last evening was given by Marion and Martha Ewing, Pauline Hamilton, Leona Massen, May Walker, Lila and Ira Bird, Dorothy Speer, Mildred Belt, Sarah Williams, Nova and Jennie Hall, Viola Knebel, Mary Heister Estus, Ellen Freshour, Louise Gregory, Naida Spence, Suzie Randall, Ada Miller.

Mrs. Joe Willis and daughter were guests of the Hotel Muchlebach, Kansas City, this week.

Reunion at the McCubbin Home.

One of the happiest and most enjoyable family reunions took place at the country home of C. F. McCubbin, four miles north of Guthrie, October 26. The event was held in honor of R. S. McCubbin, who is past 90 years of age and one of Logan county's pioneer citizens. Gathered around him were his children, grand children and great grand children: Mrs. J. D. Armstrong, Atchison, Kan.; Mrs. E. Belle Tryon, Sacramento, Cal.; Mr. C. F. McCubbin, Guthrie, Okla.; Mrs. John Verser, Cushing, Okla.; Mrs. John Rinehart, Luther, Okla.; Will P. McCubbin, Guthrie, Okla., and Mrs. Ed Rees, grand daughter and children of Sullivan. His children all were present excepting R. D. McCubbin, Muscotah, Kan., and Mrs. A. A. Florence, Sacramento, Cal.
